

Hello Music Mamas and Papas,

Welcome to your FREE gift: Music & Journaling Retreat. Often, while facilitating retreat or class, I use music to evoke a sense of connection in our group.

The invitation is to listen to one song each day. As you listen, pay attention to what stirs within you. Next, use the offered prompts (or anything else) to journal about your experience.

I have found it helpful to set aside the same time each day to write. Because you will be “music retreating” from home, I want to encourage you to set up your space so it feels like you’re away from it all.

- Unplug from everything except the song
- Cozy up your space (light a candle, grab a blanket, soft music)
- Favorite Journal and Pen at the ready

Move, sing, write. Repeat. There is no wrong or right way. There is simply your way.

It is my hope that this experience leaves you feeling uplifted. I’m so glad you have said yes to you! Let’s boogie.

Love,

Michelle Francois-Walsh
